

Dhiyathad Prateppornnarong, Ph.D.

118 Moo3, Serithai Road, Klong-Chan,
Bangkapi, Bangkok THAILAND 10240

dhiyathad.pra@nida.ac.th;

+66(0)27273867

Education

- Doctor of Philosophy (Criminal Justice), University of Birmingham, United Kingdom
- Master of Laws (LLM), University of Kent, United Kingdom
- Bachelor of Laws (LLB), Ramkhamhaeng University, Thailand
- Bachelor of Arts (BA Chinese Language), Srinakharinwirot University, Thailand

Professional training and memberships

- Thai Barrister at Law, the Thai Bar Institute, Thailand
- Attorney at Law, the Lawyers Council, Thailand

Fields of specialization

- Public administration
- Criminal justice administration
- Law and policy

Publications (most recent)

- Prateppornnarong, D. (2018). Brexit in hindsight and the future direction for ASEAN. Journal of Public and Private Management, 25(1), pp.183-203.
- Nuchpiam, P., Prateppornnarong, D & Jenjarrussakul, B. (2018). Social Enterprise in Thailand: Some Observations on the Social Enterprise Promotion Bill. Journal of Thai Ombudsman, 11(1), pp.109-141.
- Prateppornnarong, D. & Young, R. (2017). A Critique of the Internal Complaints System of the Thai Police. Policing and Society, pp. 1-18.
- Prateppornnarong, D. (2017). Independence matters: A case study of the Public Sector Anti-Corruption Commission. Presented at the 2nd International Conference of the NIDA Law for Development, 16 December 2017. Venue: National Institute of Development Administration (NIDA).

Positions

- Director, Master of Public Administration (English program)
- Member of the Faculty Senate, National Institute of Development Administration (NIDA)
- Lecturer, National Institute of Development Administration (NIDA)